Dear Sir, Immediately on the reception of yours, dated yesterday, I waited on Mr Charles Dean, who is editing the Bradford M.S. — He stated to me, that he has carefully and thoroughly read it, twice, and parts of it several times, — but that he has no recollection of the least item, which throws light on the genealogy of John Robinson or any of his family. — I wish the application was more successful, though its result is essentially the same, as what I had learned of him before. — Very respectfully yours. —

Joseph B. Felt.
